Ah, it only feels like yesterday when I first started working with Chibi Manga. Oh the glory. They're 5 years old and I've only been with them for almost a year. A year of proofreading for the most understanding and kind people. A year of knowing the editing a little too excited every time I work on a new project. A year of getting uncontrollable tingly feelings throughout my whole body just by opening the document. A year of postponing school work just because I literally got addicted to proofreading and after all this, all the blood sweat and tears that came up because I felt the need to be so dedicated to such nice people which resulted in a lot of sleep deprivation and avoiding school work. This probably sounds a bit over the top for a private reader, but I'd be lying if it's hard work especially if you make it to be. If something is worth doing it's worth doing well. I salute you all. I can't stop appreciating readers
